Creating the letters and words of the alphabet at the centre were divided into groups of 10. The children were given goodie bags and a tour of the north wing of the campus. The children were given words as they participated in the Human Scrabble demonstration. The children showed their skills as they participated in the activity. The children were given a speech by UFA director Adeline Tan and a briefing of the day's itinerary. Once seated in their assigned seats, the children participated in the trial class. The children were given a number of words to use in their sentences.

According to one of the teachers, "Today's activity was excellent. The children were very engaged and showed their skills as they participated in the activity.
