

Students will also benefit from the new programme, which is aimed to produce graduates with the necessary skills to meet the needs of the industry.

Ownership involves the setting up of a private teaching hospital that is set to begin construction by July. This hospital is aimed to produce graduates with the necessary skills to meet the needs of the industry.

...communication and... speaking skills. Medicine and nursing students also put effort into research... which lecturers

...two triggers

This hospital

