English for Tertiary Education

As the world gradually reopens, come join the English Holiday Programme physically at UCSI University. Fueled by the need to keep students learning, the English for Tertiary Education programme (R/KJP/00920-00929), has transitioned from hybrid learning; physical and remote online learning to physical learning. This intensive, eight-level course immerses learners in an interactive, lively, and motivating environment.

Through this programme, learners will be exposed to the functional aspects of language learning through real-life subject matters. Students will also get the chance to make friends with language learners from all over the world while improving their English reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills. Upon successful completion of the course, learners are expected to have reached the language competency of B2 on the CEFR, and the equivalency of a band score of 5.5 in the IELTS. This programme equips international students with a certain English language proficiency level for admission into various academic programmes at UCSI University.

Entry Requirement

Aged 16 years and above, all learners are required to sit for the English Placement Test (EPT).
